SSgt, USMC, Retired

*Once upon a time,
a very long time ago.
A group of men together,
formed the Eagle, Anchor and Globe.*

*Throughout the decades,
we've been put through every test.
And with each and every encounter;
We've proved we were the best.*

*Whether it be a youngster,
just brand new in the Corps.
Or one of the survivors,
when we had fought World Wars.*

*You can tell that we're the best,
with each and every stride.
Cause no matter what we do,
you can always see our pride.*
